splendid treat by a musicale, participated in by twenty-four artists of Seidl's Orchestra, New York, with Mme. Clementine de Vere Sanio as the soloist. Each room of the artistic house was decked with roses, white in some, pink in others, and American beauties in the picture gallery. There were programs folded in parchment covers ornamented with the monogram of the hostess in s'lver. After the music the company adjourned to the supper room down stairs, where supper was served from small tables, each having a center liece of American beauty roses. The company was large, and included both resident, official and diplomatic friends.

The British ambassador and Lady Paunce fote entertained a number of their younger acquaintances last night at dinner. The ta-ble was decorated with La France roses, and the effect was extremely rich and pret-ty. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hugh ty. The marriage of Miss Helen Steele and Mr. Edward E. Gwynne of New York has been set for March 25, and will be a home wedding. Mr. Carroll Brown of Baltimore will be best man and Miss Steele will be the only bridesmaid. The wedding trip will be to Europe, and the couple will live in New York upon their return. Rev. Dr. Mackay Smith will perform the marriage ceremony If everything else in existence was as delightful as the pictures from "Life" given last night in the fine hall at Rauscher's pleasant emotions would be every hour sensations and troubles would be unheariful of occurrences. The stage was curtained off with Eastern portieres, and the drawing room scene, when disclosed, was all that was appropriate. Mr. Parker Mann was in charge of the performance, assisted by Miss Kennedy and Miss Louise Kauffmann. Mrs. Parker Mann also had an important part in the arrangements, while the par-ticipants in the clever situations, Gibsonesque attitudes and artistic effects general ly were Mrs. and Miss Hough, Mr. and Mrs ly were Mrs. and Miss Hough, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. nouncements before each picture, and the pictures themselves did the rest. The last of the series was especially attractive and well received. It pertrayed "That delicious moment when you meet the nobleman your daughter has captured in Europe." His little Dundreary highness, enveloped in a ground-reaching ulster, his head protruding somewhat from a golf cap, and his face ing somewhat from a golf cap, and his face framed in lovely, golden-brown whiskers, was portrayed by Miss Moilie Davis, and so successfully that no one unacquainted with the fact could have recognized her. The floor was cleared later and a micareme dance followed, varied by refreshments on the lower floor. The affair was given for the Art Students' League, and every seat in the hall was taken.

National Geographic Society, in honor of the Venezuelan boundary commission, was one of the handsomest affairs of the winone of the handsomest analys of the win-ter. More than 500 people, prominent in official, scientific and social life, enjoyed the hospitality of the society and crowded the parlors and banquet hall of the Arling-

The rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion with American beauty roses and smilax, while the walls were hung with a lavish display of American flags. During the earlier part of the evening the guests spent the time pleasantly in conversation, and later an elegant supper was served in the big banquet hall.

The diplomatic corps was well represented, the Venezuelan legation being present in a body, headed by Minister Andrade. Mr. David T.
